

The Lubartworld Team

Claire Zalc, Principal Investigator, research professor CNRS, EHESS

Thomas Chopard,
associate professor EHESS, Centre de recherche historiques

Gabrielle Escaich,
PhD student, Iris, EHESS

Anton Perdoncin,
associate researcher CNRS, Centre nantais de sociologie

Tymoteusz Skowroński,
PhD student, European University Institute

Adèle Sutre,
post-doctoral researcher, Institut Convergences Migrations

Franciszek Zakrzewski,
PhD student, IHMC, EHESS

Scientific Committee

Tal Bruttman, UMR Héritages, CY Cergy-Paris Université | Ivan Ermakoff, EHESS & University of Wisconsin-Madison | Catherine Gousseff, CNRS | Audrey Kichelewski, University of Strasbourg | Kamil Kijek, University of Wrocław | Rebecca Kobrin, Columbia University | Morgane Labbé, EHESS | Nicolas Mariot, CNRS | Pierre Mercklé, University of Grenoble-Alpes | Hillel Rapoport, Paris School of Economics | Annette Wieviorka, CNRS emeritus

Other Participants

Inès Baude, PhD student, Cessp, EHESS | Louise Bur, PhD student, CHS, Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne | Yacine Chitour, IFS, Columbia University | Piotr Laskowski, University of Warsaw | Tobias Wagemann, PhD student, IHMC, CREDO | Carole Macré, translator of the Memorial Book of Lubartów into French | Asher Winder, president of the Society of Lubartów Emigrants and Descendants in Tel Aviv | WeDoData Team, Brice Terdjman, Antoine Rogeau, Clément Thorez & Benjamin Grillet

Lubartworld ■ Final conference

JUNE
06
25

École Normale Supérieure
Room Dussane
45 rue d'Ulm, 75 005 PARIS
9 AM - 5 PM

Migration and the Holocaust across the world in the 20th century

Writing the transnational history of Lubartów Jews, 1920s-1950s

lubartworld

9:00am | Welcome coffee

9:30am | Introduction

The stages of the Lubartworld investigation, Claire Zalc

10:00–11:15am | Conducting a collective and transnational historical investigation

Collecting archives, between the local and the global Gabrielle Escaich & Franek Zakrzewski

Quantifying the Holocaust on a micro scale
Thomas Chopard, Gabrielle Escaich & Anton Perdoncin

Mapping spatial segregation and transnational migrations
Anton Perdoncin, Adèle Sutre & Franek Zakrzewski

Writing and publishing: the advantages and risks of collective work
Yacine Chitour, Thomas Chopard & Claire Zalc

11:30am–12:45pm | Sides and steps aside

A website to disseminate research... and meet descendants
Adèle Sutre et Tobias Wagemann

Bringing students onboard: research workshops, spaces for teaching and research
Inès Baude, Louise Bur, Anton Perdoncin & Claire Zalc

Experimenting with other forms of narration: podcast
Tymek Skowroński & Claire Zalc

Lunch

2:00–3:30pm | Openings and perspectives

Visualizing Lubartworld: a data visualization project
Anton Perdoncin, Claire Zalc & WeDoData

What are the results?
Discussion with the scientific committee

3:45–5:00pm | Lubartworld from the outside

Round table with Piotr Laskowski, professor at the University of Warsaw, Carole Macré, translator of the Memorial Book of Lubartów into French, and Asher Winder, president of the Society of Lubartów Emigrants and Descendants in Tel Aviv

Final discussion

Cocktail